

THE HOLLAND AMERICA LINE MARINER TILE TRADITION

Every few years we create a set of tiles for our loyal Mariners to collect when they cruise with us. They are crafted using the renowned Delft technique of the Netherlands.

Our newest collection features four unique designs, each representing a class of ship and inspired by an iconic nautical element: compass, sextant, anchor, and bell.

We hope you treasure this keepsake as a lasting reminder of your cruise with us.